LARGEST CLASS IN COLLEGE HISTORY

Expected This Fall by Officials of that Institution.

SERVICE MEN TO RETURN

Gettysburg had Remarkable Record in War. Freshman Class May Number One Hundred and Fifty.

With the opening of Gettysburg College on September 17 less than two weeks distant it is reported by officials of the institution that they expect the largest class of all time to be enrolled this fall.

Although Dr. William A. Granville has given no estimate of the probable size of the class he said, "I expect the largest Freshman class in the history of the institution and probably the largest number of students in all four classes to enter the college this fall."

Unofficial estimates place the size of the incoming Freshman class at approximately one hundred and fifty men which would be larger by about thirty five than any Freshman class in the institution's history.

Gettysburg Academy is also expected to break all records for attendance this year.

The fact that the war has ended and that many boys who have been engaged in farming, munition making and other civilian war activities are now ready to take up the matter of their education is, of course, one of the main reasons why summer canvassers for Gettysburg college have met such great success during the months of June, July and August. Many boys earned more money during the war than any time in their lives and are willing to spend it in the way most beneficial to themselves.

One of the best features of the 1919-1920 season of Gettysburg College, however, is expected to be the return in large numbers of the boys who dropped their college work to enlist in the ranks of the army, navy and marine corps.

Gettysburg College probably furnished as many men to the army and navy as any institution of her size in the country and in regard to the percentage of commissioned officers it is believed she is second to none.

Scores of these men have received their discharges during the past six months and have come to Gettysburg to arrange to return to the institution this fall. It is said that about fifty or sixty former soldiers and sailors will be on the rolls of the college this year.

Local sport fans are in hopes that Harry Rote and Victor Emanuel, two of the greatest foot ball players ever seen at Gettysburg, will be numbered among those who return from the army. Emanuel, it is certain, is coming back but Rote may go to Lehigh University.

WAGNER MAKES STATEMENT

Says His Car May Have "Brushed" Machine of Dr. Hudson.

Nicholas Wagner, of Hanover, has stated that he had no knowledge of a collision with Dr. E. D. Hudson, Gettysburg veterinarian, last Sunday afternoon, but that his car may have "brushed" the machine driven by Dr. Hudson and caused him to lose control, says a Hanover paper.

The incident occurred on the Lincoln Highway near McKnightstown and, according to Dr. Hudson, was entirely the fault of Wagner who attempted to pass between the Gettysburg machine and an Ohio limousine and struck the former car. Dr. Hudson said the force of the collision sent his machine down a four foot embankment and into a telegraph pole while he was thrown across a fence but landed uninjured. The doctor then chased Wagner in another machine to Cashtown where he caught him.

CHILDREN DEAD FROM PARALYSIS

Dread Disease Claims Two York County Young People.

HEALTH OFFICERS BUSY

Two Hanover Children are Completely Paralyzed. No Clues Found as to Source of the Epidemic.

York county is in the midst of a serious outbreak of the dread disease, infantile paralysis, which crippled thousands of children in the United States several years ago and which caused many parents in Adams county and Gettysburg many anxious moments.

Five cases have been reported in Hanover and on Wednesday two children in Manheim township, York county, died from the disease. The children who are dead are: Annie Wagner, eight-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wagner, and James Rohrbach, fourteen years old, both of Manheim township.

Health officers and medical inspectors of the State and county have made a thorough investigation to discover the source of the disease but as yet have not announced the cause of the outbreak.

Two Hanover children who are each reported to have the disease are in a serious condition. Their ages range from eight to sixteen years. Robert Miller, of Hanover, took sick almost a week ago and the physician at once diagnosed the case as infantile paralysis. The disease has been developing and now the boy is unable to move his arms or legs. Two other children in the family are not affected.

The first symptom of the disease was found on the farm of J. E. Carl, North Codorus township, where his son, Alton, was sick. The symptoms soon developed and the case was diagnosed as infantile paralysis. Medical inspectors were notified and the Carl farm was carefully gone over in the hope of finding the source of the disease, but no clues could be found. The boy is now in a serious condition and is unable to move his head or arms. The sister of the Wagner child who died with the disease is also afflicted and is in a serious condition.

Health officers were investigating the source of the contagion Wednesday morning on the Rohrbach farm when James, the fourteen-year old son, died. Other cases have been reported in York county but these in the Hanover section are the only ones that have proved fatal and the other children have all completely recovered.

Several cases have also been reported in Franklin county but as was the case when the epidemic swept the country several years ago Adams county has thus far escaped.

NO BIDS ON TWO COUNTY ROAD JOBS

Contractors Fear Increase in Cost of Labor and Material Next Year.

Uncertainty as to the labor supply and the price of materials not only resulted in unusually high bids for the construction of the last ninety miles of highway advertised by the State Highway Department but in six instances no bids were submitted at all. This situation exists in regard to the bids on the roads to be built in Tyrone and Straban townships. Bids were asked on these improvements in the last letting in July at which time the bids were rejected by the Department. Contractors now are fearful that in spring the cost of labor and material will be even higher than it is now.

The bid in July for the improvement of the two and two-tenths miles of highway in Straban township given by M. Bennett and Sons was $135,267 and Winston and Company's bid on the Tyrone township job was $188,525. While these bids seemed high at the time it now appears that other contractors considered them reasonable and refused to go lower at the recent letting.

The way the bids are running is shown by the fact that the low for 7857 feet of highway in this borough was $109,769 and the low bid for 24,113 feet of road in Lawrence township and Lawrenceville, Tioga county, was $191,286. The Gettysburg job equals a rate of approximately $73,000 a mile while the Tioga county job amounts to but little over $40,000 for each mile.

GABLE-GREENE

College Graduate Weds Niece of Ex-Senator Martin.

The marriage of Miss Helen Martin Greene, of Huntingdon, and Dean Gable, a graduate from Gettysburg college in the class of 1915, took place at Philadelphia Wednesday.

The bride is well known in Gettysburg where she visited frequently at the home of her uncle, former Senator Martin, Lincoln avenue.

Mr. Gable while in college was managing editor of the Gettysburgian and is at present city editor of the Elizabeth New Jersey Daily Journal. He is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Gable are now spending their honeymoon in Portland, Maine, and points of interest in Canada.

They will reside in Elizabeth upon their return.

HIGH COST HITS THE SCHOOL BOY

Youthful Financiers Find Nickel Does not go Far in Buying School Supplies.

PENNY NOT WORTH MUCH

Paper and Other Equipment has Risen. Same Reasons for Advance as Given for Other Increases.

Even the school child is not exempt from the clutches of the high cost of living monster and the school boy and girl who are trudging to school for the first time this week are finding that education is not as "free" this year as it was last year.

Youthful financiers will have almost as much trouble in making both sides of the nickel work, as their mothers and fathers have in getting the full benefit of both sides of a dollar bill. The little brown penny that the school boy used to grasp so tightly will now cause him serious thought before he parts with it. There was a time that it would buy a long pencil or for those less studiously inclined a bag of candy for recess, but those days are over. Now the pencil costs two cents and it takes a nickel to buy enough candy to satisfy the hungry school boy.

As a rule, however, only the cheaper pencils have advanced in price, the five and ten cent brand remaining practically the same. The wholesale price has advanced but many retailers are continuing to sell them at the old price. The well known five cent tablet still sells for five cents but it is smaller and contains fewer pages. The young mathematician will have to figure on both sides of the sheet if he wishes to cut down expenses for paper.

The greatest advance has been noticed in school bags and other equipment of that nature. In some instances there has been an increase of forty per cent. Lunch boxes, of which a large number are sold to pupils residing outside of town and for those rural pupils who live a long distance from the school building, have advanced as much as fifty per cent. Boxes that formerly sold as low as twenty five cents are now worth between fifty and sixty cents.

Composition books, loose leaf tablets and paper for filing has not changed in price a great deal, while writing paper by the box and by the pound is very much higher. Fountain pens which are always in demand at this time of year have not gone up materially.

Reasons advanced explaining the increase in prices of school supplies are the same as given for all other advances; labor troubles, scarcity of labor, increased cost of materials and the greater cost of production.

ARMY TRAINS MAY GO THROUGH TOWN

Motor Corps of First Division, After New York Parade, will Move Overland.

While there has been no definite information to that effect, there is a possibility that the Motor Corps of the First division, which will parade at the New York on Wednesday next with General Pershing, will pass through Gettysburg via the Lincoln Highway to Washington. Directly after the parade of the division in the metropolis the troops will proceed by train to Washington, according to the plan as announced, while Motor Transport corps will go overland.

This corps consists of hundreds of motor vehicles of every shape and size, and if the trip is made through here there will be witnessed everything used in modern warfare—great tractors, heavy guns, ammunition, bakery, kitchen, laundry, sanitary and other trains that go to make up an army motor corps. The equipment and field guns will be those used in battle. The Motor Transportation corps will be accompanied by the necessary personnel.

It was announced to-day that the executive council of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor would not put the strike vote into effect until the outcome of the government's efforts to reduce the cost of living had become apparent.

STOCK REPORT

Bottom Drops Out of Crucible Steel. Fifteen Point Drop.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Sept. 4.—Further gains of one to three points were made by leading issues at the feverishly active opening of to-day's stock market. Crucible steel, yesterday's sensational feature, was a striking exception, falling nearly fifteen points in the first fifteen minutes.

The vibrations of crucible steel which recovered almost one-half of its loss in the very lively first hour had an unsettling effect upon the general list. Extreme reactions ranged from two to five points among popular issues. Prices soon mounted again under the impetus of a fresh demand for equipment and motors, shipping also showing unusual activity at two to four points gain.

Toward noon, however, crucible and Baldwin locomotives developed greater weakness causing considerable irregularity elsewhere.

WOULD INCREASE PENSION FUND

Congressman E. S. Brooks Assists in Framing New Measure.

BILL APPLIES TO WIDOWS

Final Draft Provides Minimum of $50 for Civil War Veterans. Provides for Children.

Substantial increases in pensions for Civil War veterans, their widows, helpless and dependent children of such veterans, and to army nurses of the Civil War are provided by a bill which Congressman E. S. Brooks, of York, has during the past week assisted in framing in the house committee on invalid pensions. Mr. Brooks, who is also a member of the committees on banking and currency, railroads and canals, and territories was recently appointed in addition, to a place on the invalid pension committee.

The new bill, introduced by Representative Fuller, of Illinois, proposes to "Revise and equalize rates of pensions to certain soldiers and sailors, to certain widows and former widows and certain helpless and dependent children of such soldiers and sailors, and to counter practically no opposition, and that it will speedily be granted."

In its final draft by the invalid pensions committee the bill provides for a minimum of $50 per month for all Civil War veterans who were honorably discharged after service of 90 days or more, or who served less than 90 days and were discharged for a disability incurred in the service. The existing minimum rate for Civil War veterans who served 90 days or more, under the act of June 10, 1918, is $30. The new bill proposes that the increase of $20 per month go to all those coming under its provisions, who are at present receiving an amount less than $50.

For the loss of a hand or foot in the line of duty, or a hand or foot totally disabled, Section 3 of the bill makes the new rate $60 instead of $40, as under the act of March 2, 1903; for the loss of an arm above the elbow, or a leg above the knee, a pension of $60 is proposed, as compared with $45 under the existing law; loss of an arm at the shoulder, or a leg at the hip, would bring the pensioner $72 per month, compared with $55 under the existing law, while loss or total disability of one hand and one foot, incurred in the service, would bring a pension of $90, as compared with $60, the present rate.

The proposed new act would pension the widow of a Civil War veteran who served 90 days or more, or who was discharged within a less period because of disability incurred in the service, at $30 per month instead of $25, as at present. It is provided that marriage shall have taken place prior to June 27, 1915. Widows who have remarried once, or more than once, since the death of the veteran husband, and whose subsequent marriage or marriages shall have been dissolved by death of the husband or by divorce without fault on the part of the wife, are to be entitled to this $30. The children of widows of Civil War veterans, such children being under 16 years of age, would receive pensions of $6 per month, as compared with $2 under the present law.

CROWDS CHEER AS WILSON SPEAKS

President Says Citizens are Only People He Owes Any Report.

FIRST OF THIRTY SPEECHES

Given at Columbus, Ohio. Says he is Astonished at Statement Made by Certain Opponents.

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, Ohio, September 4.—President Wilson opening his country-wide speaking tour for the Peace Treaty declared in an address here to-day that his purpose was to "go out and report to my fellow countrymen."

"The only people I owe any report," the President said, "are you and the other citizens of the United States."

President Wilson said it also seemed "increasingly necessary" that he should make such a report because he had read many speeches about the Treaty and was unable to gather from them much of what the treaty contains.

Speaking to a crowd which jammed the city's auditorium whose seating capacity was estimated at 4,000 the president's declarations frequently were interrupted by cheers.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. W. O. Thompson, President of the Ohio State University, and President Wilson was introduced by former Governor James E. Campbell as "the first citizen of the big round world."

President Wilson began by saying that he had chafed from the confinement of Washington and was glad to get out to make his report to the people.

In the first place, President Wilson said, the Treaty undertook to punish Germany but that there was no thought to overwhelmingly crush any great people.

"Restitution had been exercised," he said, "and there was provision for making the reparation no greater than Germany could pay."

Mr. Wilson said he had been "astonished" at statements made about the treaty and was convinced many of them were made by men who had not read it or else failed to comprehend its meaning.

The League of Nations, he declared, was formed in fulfillment of the promise that the United States was fighting this war to "end business of that sort" forever.

"Not to establish the league," he said, "would be unfaithful to those who died for their country. If we do not do this thing we will be neglecting the central covenant promised to our people in the League of Nations. It is the only thing to prevent the recurrence of the catastrophe."

"Besides this the Peace Treaty tears away the possibility of oppression and gives small nations the right to live their own lives," he said. "That was the American position and I was glad to fight for it."

"In its present condition the Treaty provides for Fiume. Italy has only scattered settlements in Fiume and she wants it for military purposes. If the League of Nations were adopted Italy would not need that foothold."

Mr. Wilson used the word measurable and explained that racial lines were always distinct and could not be drawn absolutely on a prescribed map. This is why some boundary lines were left to be decided later by the people. The Treaty was shot through with the American principle, choice of the governed. The Treaty contains a Magna Charta of labor which will set up an international labor organization which will hold a meeting in Washington in October.

"When the Treaty is accepted," he said, "men in khaki will never have to go overseas again and I say when it is accepted because it will be accepted."

The president appealed to his hearers to exert their influence for the acceptance of the Treaty.

"Don't let them pull it down. Don't let them misrepresent it," he concluded.

As the President was leaving the hall a Chinese in the gallery called out, "How about the Shantung?" The President apparently did not hear him.

WILSON SURE OF RATIFICATION

Optimistic in Final Conference with Hitchcock as he Starts Tour.

DISPUTE ON ARTICLE 10

President is Off for the West. Republicans Agree on Three Treaty Reservations.

Washington, September 4.—President Wilson left Wednesday night on his Western speaking tour in behalf of the peace treaty confident of ultimate ratification of the instrument by the Senate without amendments or "destructive" reservations which would require re-negotiation.

A final survey of the Senate situation was given the President late Wednesday by Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, ranking Democrat of the Foreign Relations Committee, who called at the White House at Mr. Wilson's request. The President was informed that Republican leaders plan to report out the treaty within a few days, probably not later than next Wednesday, and was assured that every amendment involving any "killing" reservation would be defeated overwhelmingly. Specific reservations, it was said, were not discussed and the President warmly approved the immediate plans of the treaty's friends to meet what Senator Hitchcock termed was "a clean cut issue."

Three Reservations O. K.'d

Friday the committee plans to close its hearing and consider the resolution of ratification, including reservations. The so-called "mild" and "strong" reservations among the Republican senators continued negotiations Wednesday toward a compromise agreement and Senator Lodge was said to have approved three of the former's proposals—those dealing with the Monroe Doctrine, domestic questions and withdrawal from the league—but with agreement still to be reached on a reservation affecting Article X of the league covenant. Following conference of Republican leaders late Wednesday, it was said that, if possible, the proposed reservations would be made public textually to-day.

To Fight Amendments First

The President and Senator Hitchcock were said to be in complete agreement that the immediate fight should be pressed against the five amendments adopted by the Foreign Relations Committee. The President, it was stated, endorsed the view expressed by Mr. Hitchcock Wednesday in the Senate that any amendment, no matter how trivial, would have the effect of withdrawing this nation from the treaty and require separate negotiations with Germany.

"The President," said Mr. Hitchcock after leaving the White House, "is gratified that the issue has been drawn on amendments. He believes the people realize the danger of adoption of any amendment, or of a reservation which would have as killing effect. He takes the ground that amendment would cause our withdrawal from the treaty."

Action on reservations, the President was said to feel, can be left for future consideration after the outcome of the fight against amendment.

"The President said he was well satisfied with the way the fight so far has been handled," said Mr. Hitchcock, "and over the very distinct gains made by friends of the treaty and the league. I assured him absolutely that every amendment proposed would be beaten. I told the President that many Republicans who favor reservations also are for the treaty and the league and will not vote for reservations and amendments which would nullify or require re-negotiation."

HEAR NOTED JURIST

Famous English Jurist Addresses American Bar Association.

Boston, Sept. 4.—The greetings of the Bench and Bar of England were brought to the American Bar Association, at its annual meeting here Wednesday, by Viscount Finlay, former Lord Chancellor of England. The famous jurist, who has been mentioned as likely to be Great Britain's choice for presiding officer at the trial of William Hohenzollern, if the former German Emperor is brought before an international tribunal, said the legal profession of England was proud of the development which the common law of England had received in the United States.

"It is, indeed, a great heritage, that of the common law of England to which we of both sides of the Atlantic have fallen heir," Viscount Finlay said. "You, like ourselves, are proud of its traditions and of the spirit of liberty which it breeds."

MEXICANS ADMIT FIRING ON FLIERS

Consul Takes Steps to Punish Guilty. Claim Plane Scared Horses.

Laredo, Texas, Sept. 4.—Possibility of an immediate retaliatory action by United States military forces in connection with the attack Tuesday on an American Army airplane, has been eliminated, it was indicated here last night by the admission of Mexican authorities Wednesday that the attack was made by Carranza soldiers.

Capt. David W. McNabb was slightly injured, but Lieut. Von De P. Johnson, who was flying with him, escaped injury.

While official information was lacking, the impression was gained in army circles that this admission has removed the situation from the hands of the military so far as emergency action is concerned and placed it directly up to Washington for diplomatic action.

To Punish Those Guilty

Mexican Consul Garcia in announcing that Mexican soldiers on their initiative had fired upon the airplane, said a complete report had been made to Mexico City, with a request for instructions as to punishment for those guilty.

One point in difference between the Mexican and American reports was the location of the airplane when the opening volley was fired into it. Consul Garcia declared an investigation showed it was one kilometer inside the Mexican border, while unofficial American reports insist the plane was in United States territory at the time.

The exact nature of the report made by Colonel Buck, district commander, to Major General Dickman, southern department commander at San Antonio, was not generally known Wednesday night as the former refused to make any statement. It is assumed he forwarded the testimony of American witnesses to the attack, who declared emphatically the plane was near the Texas bank of the Rio Grande.

STATE POLICE IN NEW STATIONS

Twenty Ex-Soldiers Taken in During Week. Many Vacancies to be Filled.

Fifty six sub-stations, the largest number the State Police Department has been able to establish since the outbreak of the war, are now in operation throughout the State. Of this number eight have been made up of men from the new troop recently organized near Lancaster and to be finally located in Harrisburg when the new barracks at the State arsenal is completed. The Lancaster troop is now comprised of fifty three officers and men.

Twenty men, all veterans of overseas service, were enlisted for the State Police force this week. Fifteen of these men were detailed to the new Lancaster troop and five to Butler.

There are still a number of vacancies which will be filled in the next month or so by enlistment of veterans of army or navy service. The forces in France, the navy and the marine corps are all represented in the State Police at present as well as some organizations which did not get opportunity to serve overseas.

State Constables Meiller and Brudner, of Troop E, have replaced Tipton and Bush at Mont Alto.

ASKS MONEY TO FOLLOW WILSON

Congressman Says Government Should Pay Expenses of those Opposed.

HITCHCOCK CALLS KNOX

Raps Treaty Critics and Declares Program of Republicans is to Kill Peace Treaty.

Washington, Sept. 4.—An appropriation of $15,000 to defray expenses of senators who plan to follow President Wilson on his peace treaty speaking tour to the Pacific Coast was proposed in a resolution Wednesday by Representative Newton, Republican, Missouri.

The resolution recited that expenses of the Presidential trip were paid out of the annual traveling fund of $25,000 voted by Congress, whereas there was no fund for senators who desired to tour the country in opposition to the league covenant.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Declaring the real purpose of the Foreign Relations Committee majority in amending the peace treaty was to kill the treaty entirely, and that such a course would be suicidal to the United States, Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, Democratic leader, asserted in a Senate speech Wednesday that the majority of the senators never would accept any of the committee changes.

"The treaty opponents," he said, "crawl on the ground with a microscope searching for pitfalls" in the League of Nations and overlook substantial benefits which the treaty would bring the nation. The proposal of Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, that the treaty be rejected and a separate peace made with Germany was characterized by the speaker as an insane "mixture of poltroonery and folly."

What if Adopted

"By a vote of nine to eight," said Senator Hitchcock, "the Committee on Foreign Relations is to bring squarely before the Senate the question of defeating the pending treaty. Suppose the Senate should vote in favor of the Shantung amendment or any other? What would happen?"

"Either the President would refuse to go further with the treaty, or he would submit the amendment to the nations associated with the United States."

"Does anyone believe they would accept it? Does anyone believe that Great Britain, who has already ratified the treaty and is also under a pledge to Japan with regard to Shantung, would accept the Shantung amendment? Does anyone think that France, also under a pledge to Japan, would ratify this change? Does anyone suppose that Japan herself would submit to this humiliation before the eyes of the world?"

Would Isolate U. S.

"I cannot conceive of any intelligent and candid man who would assume such a thing as a possibility. We would be met by an instant refusal to accept the amendment, and then where would the United States find itself in this international settlement? We would find ourselves out in the cold, isolated from the rest of the world. The work of ratifying the treaty would proceed without us."

"The treaty itself provides that when three nations, in addition to Germany, have signed it shall go into effect. It is easy to see the enormous benefits which Great Britain and France will derive from this treaty. They will not take any chances. It is preposterous to suppose that Japan will delay its ratification. The result is beyond all question."

TANKER LIKED TOWN

Appreciated Treatment Shown Him by Gettysburg People.

Ernest W. Fickersgill, who was at Gettysburg with the Tank Corps in 1918 and was one of the three hundred and fifty men naturalized here, has written to Prothonotary G. Harry Roth expressing his appreciation of treatment given him by Gettysburg residents.

He wrote, "I spent over four months in Gettysburg and met quite a few people during my stay. I always considered that they treated the Tank Corps boys well as we were always welcome any place we went. I am sure the boys appreciated the kind treatment."

This is but one of many letters of that character which Mr. Roth has received.

SAY DRY AGENTS DRANK THE BOOZE

After they Had Seized it from Bootleggers. Officers on Trial for Murder.

Manassas, Va., Sept. 4.—Testimony that W. C. Hall, prohibition inspector, and three other dry agents, drank a part of the contraband whisky which they had seized from the automobile of R. C. Shackelford and Lawrence W. Hudson, whom they had mortally wounded, was presented Wednesday by Herman Goode, state's witness. The evidence marked the close of the second day of presentation of the prosecution's case in the trial of Hall, who is charged with implication in the killing of the alleged bootleggers near Winchester last March.

Goode declared that from his home he had a clear view of the Shenandoah Valley turnpike, where the shooting occurred, and that after the "dry" agents had returned from the Winchester hospital, where they had taken the dying Hudson, they obtained a bottle of whisky from the seized automobile and each took a drink. He also named Harry F. Sweet, who is under indictment in connection with the killing, as being one of the group.

The prosecution is expected to rest to-day, and it is believed the defense will finish its case this week.

The point involved, Commonwealth Attorney Williams announced in his opening address, is not the guilt for the killing of Hudson, but the "legality" or "illegality" of the killing. The verdict is expected to have an important bearing on the limitations of the enforcement of the prohibition laws.

DEFENDANT DISMISSED

Curtis Smith, Edge Grove, who was arrested by Constable James Sterner, McSherrystown, on the oath of Grayson Deardorff charged with assault, was dismissed after a hearing held at the office of Squire V. H. Lilly, McSherrystown, for want of evidence. The case was the result of the collision between Deardorff and Smith which took place at the bend on the Hanover and McSherrystown turnpike at the entrance to McSherrystown Saturday, August 23.

SPECIAL DID NOT STOP

President Disappointed Crowd at York by Remaining Secluded.

The special train bearing President Wilson, members of his official party, and a goodly number of newspaper men, on its way to Columbus, Ohio, passed through York at 10:02 o'clock Wednesday night. The train was running at a fairly good rate of speed and persons at the local Pennsylvania railroad station who hoped to obtain a glimpse of the distinguished statesman, who is about to carry his appeal for a League of Nations direct to the people of the nation, were doomed to disappointment, for the president was not to be seen. It is possible that he had retired for the night. However, a number of newspaper men could be seen with typewriters set up ready for business. No stop was made in York.

MR. ORCHARDIST

Maybe your orchard doesn't get wet with dew in the night, and doesn't get you cold and wet in the mornings before the sun gets busy. But if it does—here's the remedy—A pair of overboots. A light weight rubber boot to be worn OVER the ordinary leather shoe. Protects the leg to the knee, and buckles right below it to keep the top up. When the sun gets up and dries the grass, jerk them off, roll them up, and put them in your pocket—they weigh only 2-12 lbs. a pair. Ask to see them the next time you are in town—$2.75 a pair—you will have lots of winter use for them too.

And the Wild Man from Borneo Walks Out.

Windsor, Maine, Sept. 4.—The actors' strike has spread to the midways of the country fairs. A "fat lady" appearing in a nearby fair last week, demanded more pay and upon being refused, went to her home in Connecticut saying she would stay there until the showman met her terms. Wednesday Joseph Ruggiero, announced by a barker at the Windsor Fair as a "wild man from Borneo," was in court. "I can't be a wild man for nothing," he told the judge after saying he had asked for more money before leaving the show. "Folks throw peanuts and apples and chewing gum at me and I won't stand it unless my pay is raised." The charges against him were adjusted and he left for his home in Boston.

SPORTING COLUMN

Judging from reports made by various base ball players and organizations in Gettysburg it seems likely that the present season will continue indefinitely.

The guides are not satisfied with the outcome of their contest with the Court House and may stage another contest while printers of town state they are anxious to meet the victorious Court House nine piloted by Sheriff Hartman.

Eddie and Ira Plank and Lawrence Oyler are talking about getting up a team of garage men and if all these plans materialize the present base ball season which has given local fans so much pleasure will probably close when snow on the base paths renders running impossible.

British sportsmen, after watching the decisive victory scored by Joe Beckett over the American light heavyweight, Eddie McGoorty, are raising a pool of $50,000 to speculate upon the Englishman should Promoter Cochran succeed in matching him with Jack Dempsey holder of the world's heavyweight crown.

Active steps are now being taken to bring about such a conflict, and, it is said, the largest purse ever offered a heavyweight will be made to Dempsey to go to England and fight the sensational-Briton.

Americans who witnessed the Beckett-McGoorty match are unanimous in the opinion that the Briton would be able to give the holder of the world's honors a thrilling battle. That Beckett is a real topnotch scrapper there is now no doubt. He is a fine two-handed boxer, is strong as a bull and can hit with any of them. It is even believed that he is a better man from a scientific standpoint than is Dempsey.

Beckett, despite the fact that the fight went 17 rounds before the knockout came, simply toyed with McGoorty. He outpointed the American in every round and floored him once in the twelfth, thirteenth and sixteenth and twice in the seventeenth session. Joe at the end was seemingly as strong as when the contest began.

Talk that McGoorty was not in the best condition was soon scouted by those who are familiar with the methods he used in training. The American worked diligently for three weeks and was in superb shape when he stepped into the arena.

From an American standpoint it may readily be said that the British sports better raise $500,000 instead of $50,000 as there are thousands of fight fans throughout this land who would stake their last dollar on Jack Dempsey to beat Joe Beckett although they

JURY HOLDS FATE OF GIRL'S SLAYERS

Greensburg Trial has Attracted Much Attention. School Teacher was Victim.

Greensburg, Pa., Sept. 4.—Testimony in the trial of James Crawford, a farmhand, charged with the murder last May of Emma Austraw, 19-year-old school teacher of Derry township, was given to the jury in criminal court here Wednesday by Lieutenant Thomas J. McLaughlin, of the State Police. Lieutenant McLaughlin arrested Crawford and John Ray, another suspect, who is awaiting trial in connection with the girl's death.

McLaughlin said he had investigated the case since the girl's disappearance April 28, and that Crawford in an alleged signed confession admitted being present when Miss Austraw was attacked. He testified, however, that Crawford declared in the alleged confession that it was Ray who shot the girl and hid her body in an outhouse on an abandoned farm.

The only other witness called was State Trooper James A. McHugh, who assisted McLaughlin in the investigation.

BLISS NATIVE HERB TABLETS

A RUN DOWN SYSTEM is like a run-down clock. Unless tuned up it is of little use. If you are run-down from over-work, don't neglect your condition. Get a box of Bliss Native Herb Tablets, take one or two at bedtime, and you will note an immediate improvement. For over thirty years they have proved a wonderful aid to men, women and children in maintaining health and vigor. George Grindeth, Dover, Tenn., writes: "I was all run-down in health, and it seemed nothing would help me. I was induced to try Bliss Native Herb Tablets. I am thankful for this wonderful remedy, because I am enjoying good health." Don't delay taking Bliss Native Herb Tablets. There is nothing to equal them for removing the cause of constipation, liver and kidney trouble, sick headache, rheumatism or disordered stomach. They stimulate the liver, purify the blood and tone up the system; also improve the appetite. Get the genuine. Look for the trade mark and money back guarantee on every box. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00.

NEW OXFORD COUNCIL

Waste of Water Stopped by Cutting off Supply.

At the monthly meeting of the New Oxford town council held Tuesday evening the street committee reported repairs made to streets and gutters on Miller road, High street and Berlin road. Iron corrugated pipe, ordered some time ago, has arrived and the committee was ordered to lay it at the proper places.

The water committee reported that a number of residents are wasting water by sprinkling the streets. The committee reported that these same residents have received notices from council to stop sprinkling but have refused to follow out the orders. Council ordered that the water be cut off from these residences until they decide to follow out instructions. The water was cut off Wednesday morning.

Sense in Superstition.

There is often a common-sense reason underlying what, at first sight, seems merely a superstition. Take, for instance, the old belief amongst colliers, that a mine much frequented by mice is a lucky mine. We know now that mice are peculiarly susceptible to foul gases, and the presence of unusually large numbers of these little animals, therefore, is proof positive of the absence of any danger. Hence the alleged "luck."

The leek, it is said, is called house leek because it was formerly common in the north of England to plant the house leek on the roofs of cottages as it was supposed that the leeks were protection against thunder and lightning.

Experts or Theorists—Which?

The packing industry is intricate, complex—far more so than the railroads or the telegraph.

Every day multiplying needs of society increase its problems and multiplying responsibilities demand more of it.

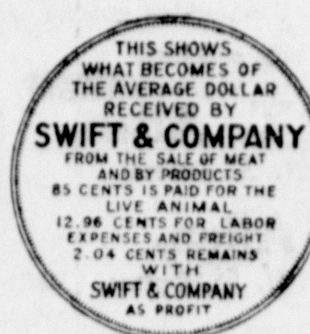

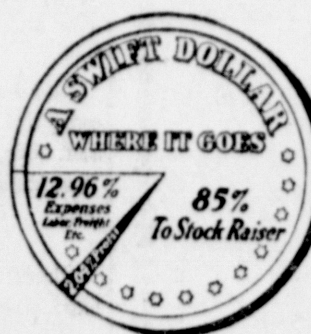

Highly trained experts, specialists of years' experience, thinkers and creative men, devote their lives, their energies, their activities, to solving the problems of the packing industry and meeting its widening duties.

Swift & Company is not a few dozen packing plants, a few hundred branch houses, a few thousand refrigerator cars, and a few million dollars of capital, but an organization of such men. It is the experience, intelligence, initiative and activity which operates this physical equipment.

Can this intelligence, this experience, this initiative and creative effort which handles this business at a profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources, be fostered through the intervention of political theorists, however pure their purposes? Or be replaced by legislation? Does Congress really think that it can?

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar".
It will interest you.

Discoverer Tells Druggist Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenhu Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. People's Drug Store has been appointed agent for Allenhu in this vicinity with the understanding that it will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.
